

Intersectionality Women's Programmes CIC – Referral Pack

1. About Us

Intersectionality Women's Programmes CIC (IWP) is a women-led, trauma-informed, non-profit organisation supporting women and girls aged 14+ across Luton, Bedford, and Central Bedfordshire. We deliver accredited employability qualifications, emotional well-being support, and personal mentoring for those impacted by domestic abuse, isolation, poverty, disability, and trauma.

2. Our Offer

- Free, accredited City & Guilds Employability Skills courses (Entry Level to Level 2)
- Small group delivery (max 12 learners per cohort)
- Holistic, trauma-informed support embedded in every session
- Personalised learning, flexible delivery, safe and inclusive spaces
- Open to women and girls aged 14+, especially those not in education or employment

3. How to Refer

We accept referrals from professionals (schools, support services, charities), as well as self-referrals. To make a referral, please complete the form below or email us at:
info@intersectionalitywomensprogrammes.com

4. Referral Form

Referring Organisation / Contact (if applicable): _____

Name of Learner: _____

Date of Birth: _____

Contact Number: _____

Email Address: _____

Support Needs / Notes (e.g. DV, mental health, disability): _____

Preferred Location (Luton / Bedford / CBC): _____

Preferred Contact Method: _____

5. Additional Information

All information shared with IWP is treated with confidentiality and used solely for the purpose of supporting learners through our programmes. Once a referral is received, a member of our team will be in touch within 2 working days to discuss next steps.